Vocabulary

High Frequency Words for this week are:

covered, everything, through, woods, guess

Robust Vocabulary Words for this week are:

edge, ventured, described, hesitate, anonymous, unselfish, satisfied, neighborly

Quick Tip: To expose your child to these words, one suggestion may include placing word cards around the house and having the student read and define the words as they find them.

In our literacy centers, we place the words on index cards with the definitions on the back. The students read the cards and work with partners to become more familiar with the words.

Writing: (Writing complete sentences)

We will write paragraphs about various pictures. Writing

Trait: (Ideas) Conventions (using the correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling). We will also work on describing. The students will also work on using effective word choices in their writing—such as rhyming words and colorful words to clarify description and revise word choices. Bullying Contract: I promise I will not bully others. I promise I will not hurt others through my words or my actions. I promise to be kind. Be Safe. Be ready to learn!

Read Aloud Charts

“Who Has Seen the Wind” – (describing how we listen for a purpose)

Students will discuss what they enjoyed most about the poem.

“The Tree Frog” – Students will think about what is happening in the poem and the feeling they get from listening to it.

Listening Center
Stories: “Frog and Toad All Year & Life

As a Frog” By Arnold Lobel & Victoria Parker

Genre: Fiction and Non-Fiction

While listening to these stories, the students will learn new vocabulary words which include: covered, everything, guess, through, woods

The students will also orally discuss the beginning, middle, and end of the story & the author’s message.

Thanks for providing snacks!!

Importance of reading with your child: All children should have good books of their own. This is a way to encourage reading. Any day is a good day to read a book to your child or with your child by listening to them read.

Quotes of the Week–
